

As a participant in the one-to-one laptop computer initiative adopted by Perkins County High School this year, junior Dayleen Jones receives her laptop from instructor Lance Wurst. Following the lead of other area schools who have successfully implemented the program, Perkins County distributed a laptop to each high school student who then attended instructive seminars with a parent on Monday evening, Aug. 17. (Photo by Shari Friedel)