

As treasurer of the Perkins County Community Foundation, Ashley Colglazier (second from right) accepts a check from Pinnacle Bank, represented by employees (l-r): Denny Hansen, Andrea Brueggeman and Lisa Schmitt. After the $2,500 check from Pinnacle, $57,000 remains to be raised by Dec. 31 for the Hunt Challenge. If accomplished, the Hunt family, owners of Great Plains Communications, will add another $25,000 to create a $200,000 endowment for Perkins County. The Hunt Challenge began in 2006, with several entities in Perkins County contributing to the goal of completing the challenge that is predicted to generate approximately $10,000 in proceeds that will be reinvested in community projects throughout the county.
