

Wallace High School players portray the residents of Mineola, who in an attempt to infuse some culture into their community, decide to stage a production of "Romeo and Juliet." Their awkward attempts at acting, directing and set construction yield some hilarious results. Clockwise from top: Lane Swedberg as Bubba Bedford portrays Romeo, Josie Hasenauer as Mildred Carson, is Juliet; Jena Aylward is Ruthann Barns, frustrated director; Bubba's friends (Shawn Christensen, Vicki Holst and Jordan Christner) portray dancers; Ryan Sowle as Billy Bob, and John Paul Lempke as the set builder, handle the scene changes. (Photos by Nora Jameson)

