

The Grant Bloodmobile was held Tuesday, July 13.

Forty-eight units of blood were received, well below the goal of 65 units.

There were three new donors: Ryan Putnam, Rhonda Kroeker and Zachary White.

Receiving pins were Julie Burge, two gallons; Shari Friedel three; Kyle Kammerer four; Sandy Glenn and Keith Larsen, seven gallons each.

Grant E-Free church ladies who served lunch and cookies and acted as bloodmobile volunteers were Rhonda Kroeker, Sally Shiers, Jordan Swesey and Marilyn Regier.

Bloodmobile workers were Ellen Gillett, Twilla Gartner, Marilyn Holscher, JoAnn Shultz, Emily Carlson, Karon Pankonin, Jean Cochran, Hazel and Merle Gimeson and the Grant Lions Club.

The bloodmobile appreciates the volunteers and realizes the collection could not happen without the help.

The next Grant Bloodmobile will be Wednesday, Nov. 3 from 8 a.m.-2 p.m.
