

Nebraska Secretary of State John Gale says the public should report complaints of suspected illegal election activity to his office in connection with the Nov. 2 general election.

Gale's office has an election fraud unit that is responsible for investigating complaints of such matters as voter impersonation and election falsification.

Individuals can call (888) 727-0007 (toll free) or (402) 471-2555 to report complaints. The election fraud unit will treat callers and their complaints in a confidential manner.

The election fraud unit will investigate each complaint. If a complaint is deemed credible, it will be forwarded to the proper local, state or federal law enforcement agency for possible prosecution.

"My office is committed to upholding fair and honest elections," Gale said. "It is imperative that we ensure the sanctity of the election process."
