

Sandhills Crisis Intervention Program (SCIP) invites the public to celebrate its 25th anniversary on Friday, Nov. 5 at 6:30 p.m. at the Platte River Inn Convention Center in Ogallala.

The event promises an evening of festivities, food and fun in honor of the 25 years SCIP has provided services to Arthur, Deuel, Garden, Grant, Keith and Perkins counties.

Guest speakers, wine tasting, dinner, live entertainment, and auction and prizes will be featured throughout the evening.

Since Nov. of 1984, the non-profit organization SCIP has advocated for those affected by domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking.

Tickets are now on sale at the SCIP office in Ogallala, 100 E. 11th Street, KOGA/KMCX Radio Station, 113 W. 4th; or Western Insurors, 221 N. Spruce.

Call (308) 284-8477 for more information.