

All are invited—come enjoy an abundant meal shared with friends, family or neighbors.

In its 26th year, the community Thanksgiving feast scheduled for Thursday promises to be an excellent meal and a good time of fellowship.

However, to make this Thanksgiving as successful as those in the past, more help is needed.

According to organizer Bob Tatum, numbers of volunteers who have stepped forward thus far are down, so anyone who is planning to attend and would like to help prepare the meal is asked to call Tatum or his wife DeeAnn at 352-4574.

Volunteers who would like to help are guaranteed a fun social time while doing it.

Everyone is invited to take part in this annual meal.

Those attending are asked to bring a side dish or dessert—but everything else will be furnished, including turkey, stuffing, cranberries, potatoes and gravy, vegetable, rolls and drinks, plates and silverware.
