

“It’s in the Bag” at the Christian Women’s Club in Wallace on Saturday, Jan. 15.

Join friends and neighbors at the Wallace Community Hall beginning at 10 a.m. CT.

Sabrina Sandoval from Wauneta will let her skills “Out of the Bag” as she shares her musical talent.

Jen Ledbetter from Wallace will show that “It’s all about the bag” as she shows her Miche Purses followed by Kris Beckenback from Lincoln, who shares her story, “Will Have Big Flowered Hat, Will Travel.”

She was born and raised in Lincoln. When she isn’t cooking she enjoys entertaining, playing with her grandson, blogging, singing, and writing. Beckenback is pursuing a degree in Communication Studies at UNL. She works at UNL and occasionally gets to enjoy traveling.

The ticket at the door includes all of the morning’s festivities and the continental breakfast.

Reservations are due on Thursday, Jan. 13, prior to meeting day. Reservations can be made by calling Mary Vote 387-4203, Karen Gibson 387-4580, Lou Tietjen 352-4774 or Wanda Poppe 353-1715 or via email to rmvote7@wirelessinet.net or jsa3fike@gmail.com.

Let the news out that “It’s in the Bag” in Wallace and bring a friend!