

After 34 years of service, Edyth Lemkuhl is retiring from the Wallace Fire and Rescue Department. She received certificates and letters from the Nebraska Department of Health. The department presented her with a painting of flowers from Edyth's own garden by a local artist. (Above left): Fire Chief Ray Jameson (shaking her hand) and First Assistant Fire Chief Manny Pacheco present Edyth with a certificate. (Courtesy photo)