

Nearly 190 individuals attended the 19th Annual Mid-Winter Fire School on Feb. 6 at Holdrege High School.

Among those attending from Wallace were Charles Andrews, Deb Jameson, Ray Jameson, Ryan Kuhlman, Shane Moore, Starleen Moore, Michael Sullivan, Lynn Swanson and Ashley Whitson.

The school was sponsored by the Central Nebraska Volunteer Firefighters Association and Central Community College-Holdrege.

Sessions included advanced fire investigation and evidence preservation, courage to be safe, fire chief's tool box, gas and crude oil pipeline safety, mass casualty/trauma and domestic violence, rural water supply, tower rescue, wildland firefighting fine fuels, and wildland tactical decisions.
