

The North Platte Community College music and art departments will present a free spring concert and art showing at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 3, at McDonald-Belton Theater.

The art showing will feature works of NPCC students under the direction of Art Instructor Dik Haneline.

The choir will sing a medley of songs ranging from “The Chorus” (vois sur ton chemin) to a stirring arrangement of “The Battle Hymn of the Republic.” The band will play several pieces of music featuring a traditional arrangement of Jimmy Buffett’s “Margaritaville” to the popular drum feature of “Wipe Out.”

The concert will feature several soloists concluding with the choir, band and audience participation.

The choir is directed by Elizabeth Peters, with Gayle Lawson as the accompanist. The band is directed by Virgil French. This will be French’s last concert before his retirement.

Members of the NPCC Choir are: Taylor Magill of Herman; Talia Cole of Gothenburg; Bert Ogg of Madrid; Scott Gray of Mullen; Ellen Duggan-Bailey, Raven Berggren, Mikayla Brauer, Amanda Ferguson, Jillian Epting, Adriana Flores, Raven Gillett, Christine Grauerholz, Cassandra Horn, Danielle Kincannon, Traci Marsh, KateLynn Moore, Nikki Radke, Corey Scott and Jeffery Small of North Platte; Jessica Fisher and April Troxel of Ogallala; and Victoria Daly of Sutherland.

Members of the NPCC Jazz Band are: Talia Cole of Gothenburg; Justin Lafferty of Hershey; Bert Ogg of Madrid; Scott Gray of Mullen; Raven Berggren, Mikayla Brauer, Brittany Davis, Adriana Flores, Josh Goodwin, Aubrey Halligan, Kate Hergenrader, Hannah Hokanson, Cassandra Horn, Natasha Jahnke, Ben Miller, Traci Marsh, Levi Most, Jill Peterson, Ashley Simpson and Robert Rucker of North Platte; Jessica Lenhart and April Troxel of Ogallala; and Victoria Daly of Sutherland.

The evening will conclude with refreshments.