

Westview Retirement Community residents on Sunday, Oct. 9, enjoyed a trip to Ogallala to see the movie, “The Help” at the Prairie Theatre.

Several people had read the book and were glad for a chance to see the movie.

The movie was about detailing the African American maid’s point of view on the white families they worked for during the 1960s and the hardships they went through on a day-to-day basis.