

Thirteen ladies from Scarlet Chapeau traveled to Chappell where they dined on July 19. The food was exceptional— smothered burritos, salads and fried chicken, topped off with chocolate silk cream pie. Shopping at the antique store, and the drug store where they all found unique buys and something that they could not live without. The furniture store also held their attention. Another shop held all kinds of interesting treasures.

The next meeting will be held in August.