

Luncheon event for all area women. Tickets on sale now.

Why not go “Walking on the Wild Side” for an enthusiastic adventure, fantastic food, and some crazy fun?

This “wild” event will be held Wednesday, Oct. 17 beginning at 11:30 MT at the New Hope Church 319 East O Street in Ogallala.

The Area Women’s Connection, part of the Stonecroft Ministries, is excited to be able to offer this luncheon event to all area women.

The noon luncheon will be catered by The Lampstand and will cost $7 per person.

Brenda Copeland from Bastrop, La. will be the featured guest. She is a wonderful southern gospel artist and inspirational speaker.

She was a Miss America preliminary winner and has recorded 11 southern gospel CDs.

Brenda will use her experience to tell how she went from “Walking on the Wild Side” to living “Tame and Sane.” Brenda will start singing at 11:30 and lunch will be served at noon.

For more information or to make reservations call or email reservations by Saturday, Oct. 13 to judynowak42@gmail.com or 308-284-1084; Donna at 308-352-2439 or Wanda at 308-353-1715.