

Westview residents enjoyed informational speakers on Thursday, Sept. 27. In the morning, Robin Quinn, librarian at the Hastings Memorial Library, gave information on services available at the library.

In the afternoon Reenie Mercier shared slides of her trip to Sweden and told about her trip. Both speakers were well received and provided interesting information for all.