

First snow of the season dumps several inches

By S. Goff

One Year Ago

November 17, 2011

Veterans Day was celebrated in Grant at the Perkins County High School. A free bean feed at the Legion Hall followed the ceremony for all veterans and their families.

The Perkins County High School cast of "Brownstone 213," was preparing for their public performance to be held Nov. 20 at the high school. Following that on Nov. 30, the students were set to go to District competition at the North Platte High School.

Ten Years Ago

November 14, 2002

Lights were being hung at many businesses on Central Avenue, as preparations for the annual Chamber Open House, which was to be held Nov. 21.

A very close race ended in a very close re-count, which resulted in Susan Logsdon being declared the winner for the title of Perkins County Clerk. Susan won by a margin of five; 566-561 against her opponent, a write-in candidate, Barb Trusty.

Twenty-five Years Ago

November 18, 1987

Residents were bundled in their warmest attire as they cleared the streets, sidewalks and cars early Monday morning. Temperatures were frigid after Sunday night's storm, Perkins County's first snow storm of the year, had brought 5-plus inches of wet and heavy snow to Grant and the surrounding areas.

Fifty Years Ago

November 15, 1962

Gaugers Grocery Thanksgiving Sale:

Norbest grade A Turkey, per pound .41¢

Wilsons shank ham, per pound.....55¢

Fresh cranberries, per pound.....19¢

Sweet potatoes, 2 cans.....69¢

Morton House Pies3 for $1.00

Seventy-Five Years Ago

November 18, 1937

"Notice to dog owners: all dogs of the village of Graat will now be required to wear the license tag or else be disposed of. Owners should see George Smith, the village Marshall to save their dogs."

The Grant Tribune Sentinel was delivered a day late this week due to uncontrollable circumstances. "Mechanical difficulties and a rush of work left us no choice but to come out a day late." It was also reported that news that should have been in the issue was left out and would come out in the next issue.