

Saturday morning, Nov. 3, the Quilted Leaf Quilt Guild held a quilt show at Westview Retirement Community. Over 28 hand made quilts were displayed by the Quilt Guild and Westview residents. The oldest quilt shown was from Lavene Burge dating back to at least 1927. Her grandmother, Elizabeth Wolf, made the quilt and Lavene's mother, Reena James, did the finishing touches. Delicious refreshments were served by the Quilt Guild. (Courtesy photo)
