A slow-moving winter storm dumped up to 11 inches in western Perkins County on Friday-Saturday, Feb. 3-4, before heading toward the eastern part of the state. The strong system moved into the area early Friday morning, bringing very heavy snow to some locations which cancelled schools, postponed events and halted travel. The storm lasted until early Saturday, tapering to flurries as it moved to the east.

A new garbage disposal system was only 60 to 90 days away for the City of Grant. At a regular meeting, City Council approved bids for a new garbage truck, trash bins, and other items to help make the switch. The total cost of the new equipment and new system was $93,626.84 and was expected to pay for itself within seven years.
