

Having carved in the neighborhood of 500 pieces of art, Archie Silvrants of Grant is donating his latest masterpiece to the North Platte Woodcarvers to be raffled off June 15-16 to raise funds for the club. “Lord of the Sky” is carved out of a horn depicting an eagle flying into the valley on one side and its mate by a nest on the reverse side. Over half of Silvrants’ carvings are ornaments which he gifts to kids at Christmas time. (Photo by Jan Rahn)
