Talich has been very active in the Grant Lions. The latest office held was secretary. He had also chaired several local committees such as candy sales, peach sales and the food stand at the local fair. He is currently Branch Manager of the Grant Frenchman Valley Coop. His wife, Sharon, is a para educator at the Perkins County Schools.
