

Advancement in technology has made it necessary to say goodbye to a small symbol of history in Grant. The phone booth on the north side of the newspaper office was removed last month by employees of Great Plains Communications. The coin-operated telephone in the booth had been taken out some time ago. Removing the empty form are (l-r): Dan Ross, Ray Wright, Adam Dickey and Greg Dickey. (Photo by Jan Rahn)