

Dave Deaver (middle) was the winner of the quilt drawing at the Perkins County Senior Center on Thursday, Aug. 29. The quilt top had been turned in to the Thrift Shoppe to be sold. It was purchased by Ellen Gillett (left) who added a border and turned the project over to Betty Frederick (not pictured) to quilt. Senior center director Trish Stever (right) provided the batting for the quilt. Approximately $400 was raised by the raffle to be used for senior center operating expenses. (Courtesy photo)
