

The first community meal at the Methodist Church in Grant was held last week, Wednesday, Oct. 16. A breakfast meal of pancakes, eggs, sausage and fruit was served. At the beginning of the meal season church officials reported around 40-45 people came to eat, increasing to around 60 recently. By the end of the year around 70 people usually attend. Above: Doug Sexson flips pancakes while, from left to right, Val Foster, Shari Sexson and Don Johnson enjoy some conversation in the food line. (Photo by Tim Linscott)