

Taylor Nixon, 29, of Lincoln, who led authorities on a high speed chase through Lincoln and Perkins counties on Sept. 21, was sentenced in district court recently.

Nixon led the Nebraska State Patrol on the chase after stealing a car from Holdrege. A state patrol plane was called in during the chase, which ended north of Grant.

Nixon was sentenced to serve 180 days in county jail after pleading no contest to flight to avoid arrest and theft by receiving, both Class IV felonies.