

"Detours of Life" is the theme of the Ogallala/Grant Women's Connection gathering on Wednesday April 16 at Westview Retirement Community at 1 Westview Drive in Grant.

The afternoon's festivities are open to everyone and begin at 2:30 p.m. MT. Tickets at the door and include entertainment and refreshments.

Paul Lee will provide the musical fun. He is a charter member of a 12-year-old Kansas City Metro Men's Chorus that has raised over $310,000 for a variety of charities. He is a native of Topeka, Kan. but has lived many places while working for IBM. He also worked for a while for IRS to pay for missions trips to Poland.

His wife, Peggy, will be sharing - "Detours of Life - How to keep from getting lost on a detour." Peggy and Paul live in Prairie Village, Kan. Peggy was adopted as an infant, married her college sweetheart, was divorced, widowed and remarried. She has adopted a daughter and she gave birth to a daughter who became mentally and physically handicapped then died at age 31. She now has two grandchildren and she and her husband travel and share their music and their story.

Reservations can be made by calling Wanda Poppe at 308-353-1715 or Evelyn McGregor at 308-289-5801 or by email to evelynlmcgregor@gmail.com

Save the date Wednesday May 21 for a very special Ogallala/Grant Women's Connection event—a Mother/ Daughter Tea at 7 p.m. at the Quality Inn with a special style show by The Clothing Closet in Ogallala.
