

Employees at Perkins County Health Services received recognition for years of service at the annual banquet on April 28. Dinner, door prizes and games were played in addition to the recognition portion of the evening.

