

In a letter to Nebraska's wheat producers, Nebraska Wheat Growers Association (NWGA) President Shawn Sullivan is encouraging membership in the organization in order to have their voices heard on state and national issues of importance to Nebraska's wheat producers.

A membership application can be found on the Nebraska Wheat website at www.nebraskawheat.com.

Membership applications can be mailed to Nebraska Wheat Growers Association, P.O. Box 95063, Lincoln, NE 68509.

All members are encouraged to indicate which committee is of particular interest to them and/or their operation.

"We want to be the voice for the Nebraska wheat producers and their farms on legislative issues," Sullivan said. "The best way to be heard on items of vital interest to your operation is to become a member of the Nebraska Wheat Growers Association."
