

The Ogallala Women's Resource Center is seeking women and couples to serve as life mentors (volunteers who work with clients and their babies) at the center. No experience is necessary.

The center will provide approximately 21 hours of training and asks that life mentors be willing to commit to at least four hours of service each week for one year. Life mentors must be 18 years of age or older.

For more information or to request an application, please call 284-3700 or email ogallalawrc@qwestoffice.net. Training is scheduled for Nov. 16-20, 1:30-5:30 p.m. MST.

The Ogallala Women's Resource Center provides assistance to women facing unplanned pregnancies, parents seeking information on positive parenting techniques, and those struggling after an abortion or miscarriage.

The center also provides basic necessities such as maternity and baby clothes, diapers and formula. The center is funded through donations and all services are free and confidential.
