

In South Platte Valley Conference competition held Monday, Nov. 23, Perkins County play production team placed second with their interpretation of “One of Our Clowns is Missing.”

First place went to Chase County for “Something’s Rotten in the State of Denmark.” Hershey was third with “Mother Goosed.”

Other competitors were Maxwell, North Platte St. Pat’s and Sutherland High School.

Several Perkins County cast members received personal recognition for their performances—Brooke Poppe, honorable mention; Christian Miyamoto and Mackenzie Hite, SPVA all-conference cast.

Both judges complimented the whole team for character development and a polished performance.
