

Brendon Cline of Wallace High School and Max Jones of Perkins County High School have both been chosen to receive a scholarship from Kinney Construction.

Cline will enroll at University of Nebraska Lincoln pursuing a degree in mechanical engineering. His interests are in rocket propulsion or military technology.

Jones will enroll at University of Nebraska Lincoln to start the pre-architecture program the first two years. After that it will be another four years with the Department of Architecture to pursue his Master's Degree.