

Many business owners find that sneaking away to dedicate time to developing a business plan and projections can be difficult.

Beginning Sept. 7, the Mid-Plains Center for Enterprise at North Platte Community College will offer a class that was designed to give business owners an opportunity to learn the “ins and outs” of a business plan and receive written feedback in your own time, whether it’s over lunch or at 2 a.m.

This class combines on-line instruction, written critiques to your businesses plan, interaction and advice from a local on-site business coach and an opportunity to network and learn from other successful entrepreneurs.

The online portion of the workshop will run from Tuesday, Sept. 7, through Nov. 23.

On-site meetings with business coaches and guest speakers will take place on Sept. 7, Sept. 18, Oct. 2, and Nov. 6

Cost of the class is $450. Scholarships are available for those who qualify.

A free workshop to get comfortable with on-line learning will be available to all participants.
