

Do you have a closet full of clothes and nothing to wear? Would you like to be able to condense your closet and still have a complete wardrobe at your finger tips?

Jean Ramsey from Broken Bow will be sharing her tips on the "Seven Day Basic Outfit" with the Christian Women's Club on Saturday Oct. 16 beginning at 10 a.m. MT at the Zion Lutheran Church, 705 Central Ave. in Grant.

"Mix and Match" will be the theme for the day as Jean shows seven different ways to wear the same basic outfit!

Jean will also be sharing her story of having a pretty good life but still having a basic need. She has been married to Don for 40 years and they have three children and five grandchildren.

She has been in direct sales, run a bed and breakfast and now is flipping houses in Arizona. She loves garage sales, half price sales, goodwill stores and auctions. She is known as the "Garage Sale Queen."

Be sure to join the group and discover the ideas and tips that she has to offer.

Tickets are available at the door and include the continental breakfast and all of the entertainment, fun and fellowship.

Reservations are needed for free baby-sitting and can be made by contacting Mary Vote at 387-4203, Karen Gibson 387-4580, Wanda Poppe 353-1715 or Lou Tietjen 352-4774 or by email to vote4jc@wirelessinet.net or jsa3fike@gmail.com
