

Fans of the PRCA Hall of Fame Buffalo Bill Rodeo can take advantage of two ticket deals designed to save money! During the month of May, The Fan Pass is available as well as a buy three get one free promotion for Thursday night's performance.

The Fan Pass is a ticket designed for the fan that wants to see all four nights of the rodeo. When purchasing that ticket, get all four performances for the price of three. This ticket is a general admission ticket, which grants the bearer access to the floor area, where they can either stand or sit in portable bleachers.

The buy three get one free promotion is for a family or group of people who want to see a single performance of the rodeo. In this case, the "Tough Enough to Wear Pink" performance on Thursday night. Fans can buy adult tickets for this promotion in the GA area on the floor, or in the upper GA section of the grandstand.

Fans wanting to purchase either of these two specials can do so by visiting the NEBRASKAland DAYS Office, or by calling the office. In either case, these two promotions will help fans of the Buffalo Bill Rodeo see more of the action without hurting their pocketbook.
