

Kid Rock will bring his Rebel Soul tour to North Platte for the US Cellular Summer Jam Concert Series as part of NEBRASKAland DAYS on June 21. Joining him will be special guests Lee Brice and Thomas Rhett.

“Kid Rock has always been near the top of our wish list,” said NLD Concert Chairman Hans Julius. “When we had to restart this process, the timing was perfect to secure Kid Rock’s 2013 tour.”

Kid Rock’s new album “Rebel Soul” came out last year to rave reviews accompanied by high profile appearances. “Good Morning America” helped celebrate on release day, while Kid Rock also performed at NASCAR and NFL events. He spent a morning with Howard Stern, and graced the cover of Billboard Magazine while Rolling Stone, The New Yorker, The New York Times, Maxim and the LA Times all ran stunning features and reviews. The week concluded with a special piece on CBS Sunday Morning.

His current single “Let’s Ride” is still climbing up the radio chart while the video for that single and “Cucci Galore” debuted on KidRock.com. The album is available physically and digitally everywhere.

The Kid Rock show replaces the Lady Antebellum concert, which was cancelled in December after lead singer Hillary Scott announced she was pregnant. Lady A ticket holders who want to see the Kid Rock show don’t need to do anything, as their tickets will be honored. Refunds will be issued to those that want them.

“We’re going to take a couple of days here to reach out to our Sustaining Members and ticket holders to make sure they know their options,” said NEBRASKAland DAYS Executive Director David Fudge. “Once that’s done we’ll go on sale to the public on Monday.”

Tickets are $59 for general admission and reserved seating. There will be a very limited quantity of Golden Circle tickets available for $99. Tickets will be available online at www.nebraskalanddays.com
