

Passing the test of time are five area couples who have reached milestone anniversaries...

25 years...

Miguel and Alicia Patrick, Grant.

Married: Aug. 15, 1987 at Grant United Methodist Church.

Where they met: In high school; Alicia was one year younger and they began dating after she graduated.

Song: "Time In A Bottle" by Jim Croce.

Family: Three daughters—

Gabrielle, Rachel, Katie.

Careers: Miguel—farming; Alicia—owns Country Gardens Greenhouse, works at Poppe's Posies, keeps books for Prevailing Winds family farming corporation.

Marital advice: "Marry someone you not only love, but like also."

40 years Beth Krems, Grant.

45 years Dan and Margaret, Grant. 47 years Greg and Joyce, Grant. 48 years Bill and Edna, Grant. 49 years Bill and Edna, Grant. 50 years Bill and Edna, Grant. 51 years Bill and Edna, Grant. 52 years Bill and Edna, Grant. 53 years Bill and Edna, Grant. 54 years Bill and Edna, Grant. 55 years Bill and Edna, Grant. 56 years Bill and Edna, Grant. 57 years Bill and Edna, Grant. 58 years Bill and Edna, Grant. 59 years Bill and Edna, Grant. 60 years Bill and Edna, Grant.

50 years

51 years Dan and Margaret, Grant. 52 years Dan and Margaret, Grant. 53 years Dan and Margaret, Grant. 54 years Dan and Margaret, Grant. 55 years Dan and Margaret, Grant. 56 years Dan and Margaret, Grant. 57 years Dan and Margaret, Grant. 58 years Dan and Margaret, Grant. 59 years Dan and Margaret, Grant. 60 years Dan and Margaret, Grant.

60 years and Harrette Kurkowski, Grant.

When I was young, I thought that love was something that you found at the end of a rainbow, and that it was something that you could hold in your hands, and that it was something that you could keep forever. But I have learned that love is something that you find in the heart, and that it is something that you can never lose.

70 years

When I was young, I thought that love was something that you found at the end of a rainbow, and that it was something that you could hold in your hands, and that it was something that you could keep forever. But I have learned that love is something that you find in the heart, and that it is something that you can never lose. but God will

