

Notes from Meadowlark Gallery
By the Perkins County Area Arts Council

Imperial artist displaying during September

A variety of work by Paula Leibbrandt of Imperial is on display at Meadowlark Gallery in Grant during the month of September.

Paula is an aspiring artist currently pursuing graphic design at Concordia University in Seward, Neb.

A 2010 graduate of Chase County High School, Paula has always had a passion for art and is continuing to uncover her creative style.

She enjoys discovering new art techniques and materials and is currently working with a variety of mediums ranging from charcoal to oil paint.

She especially loves to paint and has had both acrylic and oil paintings published in the Hastings College "Spectrum Journal of Literature and Art."

Paula's September show at Meadowlark Gallery features a variety of her work that showcases her development as both a studio and graphic artist.

Open House

The public is invited to meet and visit with the artist at an open house on Sunday, Sept. 8 from noon-2 p.m. Refreshments will be served by arts council members.

Next Month

October's show will feature beautiful stitchery by Grant's Quilted Leaf Quilt Guild as well as uniquely painted chairs by community and arts council members.

Visit Meadowlark Gallery on Friday and Saturday evenings from 6-8 p.m. March-November and check the arts council's Facebook page for past shows and a current gallery schedule.