

Youngest of the seven Pontipee brothers, Gideon, played by John Prante (right), stakes his claim to his girl of choice, Alice (Brooke Poppe), despite serious objections by her gun-toting suitor, Christian Miyamoto. The musical “Seven Brides for Seven Brothers” was enjoyed by the public at Perkins County High School last weekend. More photos from the production can be found on Page Six. (Photo by Shari Friedel)

