

One additional seat remains open and will be filled at a later date.

By Jan Rahn

Managing Editor

Incumbent candidates Brenda Kiolbasa and Amanda McGreer received 530 and 479 unofficial votes respectively to retain their seats on the Perkins County Hospital Board.

Three seats were open on the board, however, incumbent Bill Potts did not file for reelection and there were no additional filings.

His position will be filled by appointment from either a write-in vote, if accepted, or with a community member who may step forward indicating interest in serving on the board.

For the full story, subscribe to our e-Editions for $29/year.

Call 308-352-4311 for details.

