

By Jan Rahn

Managing Editor

Food, fun, games and fireworks—just a few of the things to enjoy during the annual Wallace Fall Festival set for this Saturday on main street.

A full slate of activities will keep all ages on the move throughout the day which begins with breakfast, followed by a parade and competitions, and wraps up with a street dance and fireworks.

Highlights of the day include:

- 7-9 a.m. CDT: Biscuits and gravy at the hotel.
- 9:30 a.m. : Kids parade. Line up at firehall.
- 10 a.m.: Parade. Line up at airport. Call entries to 387-4319.
- Kids games, antique vehicle and equipment show.
- 11:30 a.m.: Barbecue at community hall.

Throughout the day, drinks, snacks, barbecue are available at vendors along main street.

- Noon: Wiener dog races along main street. Dick Hasenauer 530-7333.
- 1 p.m.: Horseshoes at American Legion. Clarence Williams 387-4440.
- Bingo at Grandma Deb's during afternoon.
- 1 p.m. Rodeo one mile north. Dwight Maseburg 387-4415 or Jeff Aylward 963-4487.
- 1 p.m. Volleyball. Laura Haddix 627-7291.
- 2 p.m. Watermelon feed at Mac's Super Foods.
- 3 p.m. Melodrama at community hall, awards, and ice cream social.
- 5 p.m. Frisbee golf at park.
- 6 p.m. Demolition derby. Dick Hasenauer 530-7333.
- 8 p.m. Teen dance; 9 p.m. adult dance.
- Fireworks after dark.

Come celebrate the change of season with friends and neighbors during the Wallace Fall Festival!