

Nana's Naughty Knickers 'brought down the house' during back-to-back performances Friday and Saturday. The play staged as a dinner theatre at Perkins County High School had a hilarious theme and an eight-member cast of local residents. (Photo): Jeanie Daiss (left) who played Vera Walters, discusses a possible fallout if the apartment manager discovers the secret of hidden lingerie in the closets of Sylvia Charles (middle) played by Sally Shiers, while Bridget (Rachel Patrick) endures much stress that her Nana Sylvia might get caught. The event was a fundraiser for the Perkins County Area Arts Council and the high school drama department. Those attending enjoyed a full-course meal followed by the play under direction of Dawnell Glunz.
