

Cemeteries across Perkins County, the state of Nebraska and the entire United States performed solemn ceremonies to honor the nation's war dead during Memorial Day on Monday, May 27. Raising the flag to half mast at the Elsie Cemetery prior to the program is Post 206 Commander Glen Stanek. Color guard and 21-gun salute members include (l-r): Louis Coppersmith, John Culver, Max Hanson, Ken Potts and Jon Peterson. (Photo by Nora Jameson)
