

Above: Maggie Fisher gets her pinkie dipped in purple dye from Rotarian Don Harris as part of the Purple Pinkie project from the Grant Rotary Club on Wednesday, March 19. Elementary students paid to have their pinkie, or any other finger, dipped in the purple ink as a representation of those children receiving the polio vaccine. A total of $300 was raised by the Grant Rotary Club for the polio project. Right: Grant Rotary member John Long explains to students how important it is to give to charitable causes and help out in the community. (Photos by Tim Linscott)

