

Perkins County Sheriff Jim Brueggeman (center) helps direct traffic as the home that once resided next to Perkins County High School was moved last Thursday, June 5. The house was removed to make way for a new high school addition, which the Perkins County School Board voted to move forward on Monday, June 9. School board members discussed future financing options for the project, which will include a new gymnasium, locker rooms, lunchroom and commons area. Look for more details on this story in next week's Tribune-Sentinel. (Photo by Kylie Hanson)