

Perkins County High School students watch as fellow student Kaleb Vak experiences a simulated crash situation in the “seat belt convincer.” The activity was part of a presentation given by the state patrol at the high school on Monday, Oct. 22 during which they discussed the importance of seat belt use and the dangers of texting while driving. (Photo by Jessyca Briggs)