

New UNMC students participate in health career ceremonies

The University of Nebraska Medical Center recently held ceremonies to signify the beginning of a health career for new students in Omaha, Lincoln, Kearney, Scottsbluff and Norfolk. The students are enrolled in programs for medicine, nursing, pharmacy, dentistry, allied health and graduate studies.

Curtis Perriotte-Olson of Wallace participated in the Office of Graduate Studies' matriculation ceremony in Omaha.