

The first grade class at Wallace enjoys using their new LeapPads that they received from a John Russell Applegate Foundation grant. The LeapPads are used as part of the students' Literacy Station time allowing students to work on reading skills at their individual reading level.” (Courtesy photo)