

Members of UNK student government announced

The University of Nebraska at Kearney has announced the members of student government for the 2013-2014 academic year.

Trevor Lee of Madrid was elected secretary of student organizations and affairs. The Student Senate is the legislature for the student body, and students are elected from each of the UNK academic colleges. The Student Senate has the power to pass legislation for the campus, approve new student organizations, appoint student representatives to UNK Faculty Senate and other administrative committees. It also performs other duties concerning student issues of concern.
