

The Perkins County Middle School student council and student body held a food pantry drive before Thanksgiving to help out the county during the holidays. They collected 421 items for the pantry. Each class entered a contest to see who could collect the most items, with the winning class receiving ice cream sundaes. Mrs. Marquardt's 8B homeroom came in first place with 146 items and Mrs. Hite's 7B homeroom was second with 109. Members of the winning class include (Front row, l-r): Peyton Woodmancy, Katheryn Patrick, Kyla Wykert, Morgan Turner, and student council president, Valerie Perez. Middle row: Aryn Seiler. Back Row: Emilio Perez, Matthew Hahn, Beau Wood, Colton Heinemann, Aaron Fay, Spencer Ross. (Courtesy photo)
