

Four Perkins County High School seniors had artwork juried into The Nebraska Wesleyan University Bridge Exhibit in Lincoln. Courtney Lyon had two graphite drawings accepted. Chase Anderson has two digital photographs accepted. Matthew Sestak has a graphite drawing, and Justin Briggs has a digital photograph to be exhibited. Students entered work electronically, and the NWU Art Faculty selected work to be exhibited in January. The exhibition will be on display from Jan. 21 through Feb. 2. (l-r): Matthew Sestak (graphite drawing, Gas Mask), Justin Briggs (digital photo, Fall Flowers), Courtney Lyon (Tree, not pictured Rocks), and Chase Anderson (digital photos, Panoramic and Backlit Tree). (Courtesy photo)