

Sing Around Nebraska (SAN) is a powerful choral opportunity for students in grades 4-6, which fosters the love of singing. In February of even-numbered years, there is a Festival Choir held at 10 or more sites around the state. On Feb. 22, 16 Perkins County fifth and sixth grade students participated in Sing Around Nebraska along with over 160 students from 15 area schools. Top: Participating from Perkins County Elementary School, from left to right, included Jessie Craig, Caylee Falkenhan, Miah Long, Rylee Huff, Brandon Knoles. Front row, Savannah Schmitt, Hannah Kempf, Darius Brassfield. Not pictured, Billy Humphrey. Above: Participating from Perkins County Middle School, front row, left to right, Bella Fraizer, Keshia Leeper and Quincey Lyon. Back row, Brenden Pankonin, Haden Schrotberger, Sam McArtor and Matthew Wendell. (Photos by Tim Linscott)

